"THE BARRIER" ASSURED OF GOOD HOUSE

NOTABLE PRODUCTION WITH A GOOD CAST PROMISED A LARGE AUDIENCE.

Judging by the large list of those who have already subscribed for seats for "The Barrier" there will evidently be a full house to greet this notable play and company, but as the list is still incomplete, due to the limited time of Mr. Shipman, who was in town yesterday, the list will be left at the Miners' drug store for today and tomorrow, and those who were not approached and are desirous of seeing this production, should send in their names at once, as the sale will open for subscribers only one day in advance of the regular sale of seats.

Should the desired amount be reached, sale will open for subscribers only, Monday, February 20, and for the general sale, Tuesday, February 21.

JUST AS IT SHOULD BE

The woman suffrage question seems to be dying an easy death as far as the present legislature is concerned. The question was one of discussion in the lobbies for a few short hours and was then allowed to be forgotten and it is believed that it is buried so far in the past that there is no show of bringing it again to the front with any hopes of passage. The bill has been allowed to languish and those who were its sponsors at its moment of birth have allowed cobwebs to grow upon their memory and hide the measure. The women of the state did not come forward in its behalf as it was expected that they would do and this has been the greatest argument of those opposed to the measure for they have stated, and with a large amount of right:

"If the women of the state wanted this measure they would all have been after us. There would not have been one of us but that would have been swamped under perfumed notes and picture postal cards. As it is we have heard nothing about it and we do not believe that it is right for us to force something upon the women that they do not want."

It is possible, of course, that a decided effort will be made by the leaders of the movement at the last hour to bring the measure forward but it is believed by those who are students of legislative actions that the proper moment has passed for the grand rally and that now the measure is a dead one.—Carson News.

SULTAN NOW MAKING CHANGES IN HIS WIVES

SALONICA, Feb. 16.—Abdul Hamid, former sultan of Turkey, has gone violently insane, has killed two of his wives, and was yesterday confined in irons.

The murder of the two women, who were among those who accompanied Abdul Hamid from Constantinople when he was exiled by the young Turks, was brutal. He choked one of them to death and dashed the other so violently against the wall that she died a few hours later.

The ex-sultan was subdued only after a fierce struggle, in which he himself was severely injured.

Abdul Hamid is confined in a dungeon beneath the villa Ahtatini, which, while set apart for him as a residence, is in reality his prison. He was sent there April 17, 1909, when the Turkish revolution brought about by the young Turk party was finally completed and Sultan Hamid V. ascended the throne.

Abdul Hamid had ruled for thirty years up to that time, had deluged his empire in blood and had kept 200,000 spies to betray their fellow citizens. He was noted for having tricked the diplomats of all Europe, and from time to time had shocked the world by his sensuality and crimes.

When Abdul was sent to the villa here his suite, which was allowed to accompany him, was composed of three sultanas or full wives; four cadines or inferior wives; five halfas, or lady housekeepers, privileged to go out of the harem; two princes, his daughter and nine servants. This really gave him the allowance of twelve wives.

LOITERER ATTEMPTS TO HOLD UP POLICEMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—H. Dryness, 27 years old, who lives at the St. Julian hotel, this city, was discovered loitering in a doorway at Dupont and Clay streets by Policeman T. F. Herlihy yesterday evening and placed under arrest.

When the officer began to query him as to his motive for standing there, he pulled out a revolver and attempted to hold the officer up. Herlihy proved too quick for the thug and soon had him handcuffed. He was taken to the central station.
